

Declaration on the participation in dispute resolution procedures before a consumer conciliation body

With regard to services that are also directed at consumers we are required by law to declare the extent to which we take part in dispute resolution proceedings before a consumer conciliation body or the extent to which we are obligated to take part in such procedures. In this regard we declare that we do not take part in dispute resolution procedures before a consumer conciliation body and we are also not obliged to take part in such procedures.